Rev. Carolyn J. Mobley, was ordained to the Gospel Ministry in 1995 by the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches. She served for two years as the Interim Pastor of MCC Untied in Tulsa, OK, and before that, served for a short term as Fellowship Staff through the Clergy Connection Program and doing special projects for the Executive Director. She returned briefly to her native Florida after fifteen years at Resurrection MCC in Houston, Texas, where she was the Associate Pastor for Congregational Care and Community Partnerships. God has affirmed God's promise to Rev. Mobley as a minister who speaks through her music. She is a gifted singer and pastoral leader, whose ministry God has anointed.

Rev. Mobley is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Texas where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. The choice of matriculation for her Masters Degree in Religious Education was The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia. She completed an additional year of study toward the MTS Degree at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, GA. Rev. Carolyn has been active in Leadership since 1976 in the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches. She is one of the leading participants during MCC General Conferences. Since Rev. Mobley received her license in 1992 she has been worship leader, a workshop facilitator, and has preached on occasion at Leadership and People of African Decent conferences.

Rev. Carolyn and her partner, Adrain Bowie, have developed A Ministry of Inspiration, through which they offer a weekend of Praise and Pros Worship Experiences, Diversity Workshops in a variety of areas, and Concerts to churches around our Fellowship and other inclusive ministries, organizations and beyond. Carolyn and Adrain have traveled extensively, to places as remote as Eureka Springs, Arkansas and as far away as Johannesburg, South Africa. Their ministry together is fresh and innovative, combining prose and the arts with both traditional styles and praise and worship music. We are blessed and welcome the opportunity to share our all that God has given to us.

Lay Minister Adrain Bowie, a native of Saginaw, Michigan, is a gifted multi-media communicator, social anthropologist, and small business owner. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan. For many years, she used her powerful gifts as an instructor for secondary schools and Community Colleges, and as a trainer in several local churches.

Adrain has used her multi-media skills and experience as a producer/director editor, photographer, technical director, and camera operator to train Audio-Video Ministry Teams at large and small churches. Minister Adrain's extraordinary oratory gifts, have been used to develop speech choirs, and other spoken word ministries for worship and edification. She is a master storyteller and a contemporary griot to say the least. In August of 2007 she began her studies toward the MDiv. Degree at Candler School of Theology in Decatur, GA where she expects to graduate in 2010.

Adrain, along with her partner, Rev. Carolyn Mobley, has developed A Ministry of Inspiration that offers Praise and Pros as a fresh new approach to your worship experience. Diversity Workshops in a variety of areas, Retreats, Revivals and Speech/Musical Concerts provide a unique expression of our Creator's love. The Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, all other Inclusive Ministries, corporate and non-profit organizations, and beyond are invited to experience these gifted women of God. They have shared their anointed ministry with many congregations from Michigan, USA to Cape Town, South Africa. This spiritual union of songs and story telling has created a harmonious universal language that will bless those who hear them.
